Sisters get soaked at picnic

Cries of "Are you a Big Sister or a Little Sister?" filled the air as the Big and Little Sister Picnic got under way at Mile Square Park. Members on the Girls League Board planned fun activities including tug-of-war, balloon toss, Jello eating contest, 3-legged race, duck-duck'goose, and red-rover. Sandwiches, cookies, and punch were served to starving girls for lunch, followed by games lead by Kathy Tully. The day ended with a water fight, and every one went home laughing and soaking wet.

Spirit Week provides fun for all

Cotton Candy, Car Smashing, Pie Throwing, Save Selling, and Balloons, made Spirit Week a good time for all. Creaming teachers with frozen pies topped with oodles of whipped cream, highlighted the week of fun events. Willing Pepsters were sold as slaves, and wore funky clothes. Students took aggression out on old cars, and everyone shined with spirit.

"Handel" — original sound

Original sounds — in the gymnasium, Handel performed at the first concert of the year, beginning with J. J. Pierson as conductor and choir. Unique vibrations were created by the use of the orchestra in the band played their own arrangements. The group was accompanied with well-struck lights and flashes of color throughout the show.

Magestic Seaside Elegance, for Homecoming Dance

The Queen Mary proved a perfect setting for an evening of romance. Couples attending the 1974 Homecoming Dance moved their feet to the music of "Fusion." Queen Tracy and Escort Richard Hart, with princesses and escorts Stephanie Hardy and Guy Benjamin, Boni Bishop and Randy Davis, Wendy Thomas and Terry Malone, and Cathy Marino and Dave Mackley, arrived later in the evening and danced to "I'm a Bluebird" which was dedicated to them. The majestic grandeur established lasting memories.

Everything but sleep at Nighty-Nite

Sleeping bags, stuffed animals and pajama clad bodies filled the gym floor at the Girls' League sponsored Nighty-Night. Special attractions of the evening were a pajama fashion show, where awards were given to the cutest (Diane Gardener), funniest (Lori Decker), Sexiest (Donna Brook), and look alikes (Chris Simon and Patu Brown). Pink Panther, Bugs Bunny, and the Road runner cartoons ushered in the thriller, "Tales of the Crypt." Frequent pillow fights and pillow rider, sliders added to the sheer enjoyment of the night.

Homecoming is truly a "Dream from Long Ago"

"Dreams from Long Ago" came true for Tracy Benedix, as she was crowned at the 1974 homecoming festivities. Princess Wendy Thomas, Stephanie Hardy, Boni Bishop and Cathy Marino looked on with anguish as the Baron Football team tied the Los Alamitos Griffins 14-14. Excitement, fantasy, and bright colors made the evening a memorable occasion for all.

"Prisoner" provides light-hearted laughs

The FVHS Drama Department production of "Prisoner of Second Avenue" was a great success. The play dealt comically with the problems of a middle class couple living in a New York apartment house. Magnificent portrayals were given by Chris Wachtel as Mel Edison and Mary Lou Gilbert as his wife, Edna. The supporting cast consisted of John Herriott (Harry Edison), Brander Sauer (Pauline), Wendy Hilles (Pearl), Linda Bekas (Jessie) who added to the fine and enjoying performance.

Concluded with the Alma Mater, assemblies bring out student pride.

Charlie Brown - a very good man

Drama production of "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown" shined with hilarious comedy as it was performed all day to English classes. The "peanuts gang" included Lucy (Stephanie Hardy), Linus (Mary Lou Gilbert), Snoopy (Piggy Welton), Schroeder (John Compton), and Peppermint Patty (Nansi Brower). The production was a welcome break in the school day.

Russian speaker excites students

Early in December, FVHS students were surprised by a visit from "Dr. Velikovsky," a supporter of Russian Communism. Anger, disbelief, and a few spurts of applause filled the gym as he spoke about capitalism, communist education and courtesy. After being questioned by students, "Dr. Velikovsky" informed everyone that he was not a Russian professor, but a former marine, an American professor and speaker of propaganda. This exciting assembly was just one of the many planned for the school. Students were later entertained by George Sharp the hypnotist and "Hello People," a music pantomime show.

Holiday Week starts a new tradition

The holiday spirit touched all of FVHS during the first annual Holiday Week with everyone getting in the act. The drama dept. put on a selection of skits, daredevil teachers challenged students in a sled race, and even Santa Claus put in an appearance during lunch. An old tradition, the homeroom door decorating contest was revived, and a new one "Pick-Up-Six," a clean up campaign, was started. Students were baffled by the puzzling clues used in the Mistletoe Hunt. A special holiday dance topped off the excitement of the week.

Fellas' head for the hills during Sadie Hawkins

"Grab yer partner!" urged the banners announcing the Sadie Hawkins Dance. The new year stepped off to a lively start with the girls asking the fellas to the biggest shindig of the year. Marryin' Marty and Kissin' Kate were on hand to insure everyone had the right license, as the music of "Spring Canyon" filled the air. Senior Commission, sponsor of the dance, added a touch of "country class" to the occasion by selling carrot corsages and radish boutonnieres to the lucky gals and their fellers.

Highlights of the game included play by play announcing by KEZY disc jockey, Paul Freeman, and the final score in favor of the Clowns, 92-85. All proceeds from this event were donated to the March of Dimes.

Donkey Basketball a "sexy" show

The yearly Donkey Basketball game was sponsored by GAA with a little help from the Reynold's Company who supplied the donkeys and referees. Half-time entertainment was courtesy of Key Club as the "sexiest" Donkey Drill Team FV's ever had. The peak of the evening was the defeat of the Senior/Freshmen and Faculty by the Junior/Sophomore. The final scores were 18-16 and 20-18 respectively.

"As you like it" — highly entertaining

Gallant gentlemen, a masculine wrestler, distressed damsels, a comical clown, and a mime chorus made the Shakespearean play comedy "As You Like It" highly entertaining. Stephanie Hardy playing Rosaline and Guy Benjamin as Orlando headed a fine cast of actors who portrayed an array of characters. Colorful, modern costumes added to the enjoyment of the performance, as well as the presence of a live band. The hard work of the cast and crew made the production a success.

Romance and good vibrations filtered through the air as couples arrived at the Costa Mesa Country Club for the Girl's League Valentine's Dance. The occasion climaxed at the announcement of the 1975 Valentine court. Senior King and Queen were Tony Vrah and Peggy Wilton. Senior Prince and Princess were John Caldwell and Kathy Tully. Junior — Todd Jasmin and Sherry Lind, Sophomore — Lewis Pettit and Nansi Brower. Freshmen — Tom Tobias and Tina Bekas.

Hagen makes it happen

(ring, ring)

"Activities Office, Student speaking."

"Is Mr. Hagen around?"

"Wait, let me check . . . Anybody seen Hagen?"

"Yeah I saw him at snack with Dr. Berger."

"He was meeting with Mike McCann at lunch."

"He has a Student Council meeting during 6th period."

"But where is he now?"

"Hey Ann, do you know where he is?"

"I only work here."

Gymnastics Performs With Balance and Grace

At a recent competition, the U.S. Women's National Team, coached by Bela Karolyi, won the gold medal in the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta. The team's success was a result of their hard work and dedication to the sport.

The Fountain Valley girls' gymnastic team started off the year with about 20 new team members and a new coach, Mrs. Jeannie Cross. Coming to us as a former member of SCATS, Mrs. Cross showed every one that it wasn't so much the winning but more the attitudes that make up a good gymnastics team. Out of the 5 compulsory meets against Marina, Edison, Westminster, Newport Harbor and Huntington Beach, Fountain Valley placed 1st in all but one.

Prosperous year for GAA

The first GAA Sports Award Night of the year turned out to be a big success. The teams present that night, in the creatively decorated cafeteria, were Volleyball, Tennis, and Field Hockey. Received into the GAA Hall of Fame were Teresa Mendoza - Volleyball, Leigh Flesher - Tennis, and Sandi Carroll - Field Hockey. The motto for this year's GAA was "keep busy, make money and have," but not necessarily in that order. They had car washes, a candy sale, a swap meet, a picnic and loads of other activities to help the membership have fun and get to know each other.

Rain Delays Frosh/Soph Baseball

At the beginning of the baseball season, it looked as if 1975 would be remembered as the Year of the Rain. For the Frosh/Soph team this meant delay as many early games were cancelled or postponed. Thus Coach Dennis team will have to wait for clearer skies to show their stuff.

JV Baseball experiences slow start

The JV Baseball Team was off to a slow start as they went victorious through their first few season games. The lingering rains had deprived Coach Parsons team of valuable training time and an injury kept a key player out for the season. Although it is too early to tell, the overruling spirit of the JV team could make up for these disadvantages.

Varsity Baseball Coach Superstitious

Coach Cole refused to stand in the Varsity Baseball team picture saying "When I do, we lose." Unfortunately, this precaution didn't produce immediate results; the team lost its first league game to the Huntington Beach Oilers, 5-3.

However the determination exhibited during the last innings should see the Varsity Barons through the season.

Gymnastics To Go To CIF (?)

The 1975 season started out in high spirits for the Gymnastics team, as they won their first league meet against Edison. Coach Armstrong feels chances are good that at least one team member, Ron Hoyer, will go to CIF. Ron's specialty is the side horse. Other team members to watch for are John Lund, on the high bars, and Scott Billington in free exercises.

"RATHMANN'S RENEGADES" STRIKE AGAIN

"Rathmann's Renegades" struck again as the 1974-75 Varsity Soccer team finished with a league record of 10-3-1. Considered one of the four strongest teams in the league, Fountain Valley took third place, tying Saddleback twice and winning Edison in tough games. The Junior Varsity and Frosh-Soph teams fared less well, finishing fifth and sixth, respectively. A sports award banquet was held at the end of the season honoring the fine efforts of these players.

FV Basketball Sweeps Sunset League

Fountain Valley dominated basketball, sweeping all four division titles in its first year of Sunset League competition. Varsity led the charge by winning 13 out of 14 league games (22 of 27, overall) thus upsetting early predictions of a fourth place finish. In CIF they advanced to second round competition (after beating Katella, 54-41) where they were honorably defeated by Crespi, 54-42. A "hustling defense" played a key role in many victories. More importantly, the 1974-75 team's success is attributed to great balance, with no real superstar standing out.

JV Basketball Has Own Magic

If gazing into a crystal ball won't reveal the fate of FV's next varsity basketball team, maybe a look at the records set by this year's JV team will. The 1974-75 Junior Varsity Basketball team set three new records — Best Season Record (23-1), Most Points in one game (85 vs. Western), and Most Consecutive Wins in one season (17). They went on to tie a fourth — Best League Record (14-0). Coach Timmer made good use of what might have been a surplus of talent, often rotating 10 to 11 different players in a game "with little drop off in ability." All in all, Fountain Valley can look for an exciting varsity basketball season next year.

Sophomores Hold Their Own

Despite losing several starters to injuries the 1974-75 Sophomore Basketball team held their own, finishing the season with 21 wins and 3 losses overall. While on the way to Fountain Valley's first sophomore championship ever, they held Loara to 16 points in one game, for a new team record. The sophomore Barons held the championship jointly with Edison.

Water Polo Has "Toooooooo Much"

A summary of the 1974 Water Polo season says of Ray Bray, "All the team agreed that this guy is a hard driving coach and that he makes us swim toooooooo much. Other than that he's okay." Those 6'30 work outs paid off when all three teams finished with 6-1 league records and 2nd places in their respective divisions, Junior Varsity also captured first place at the Anaheim Tournament. Included in all Sunset League First Team selections were varsity lettermen Alan Hogue and Terry Rice, JV's Steve Kolitz and Tim Magill, and for the Frosh-Soph team, Rich Aldrich and Jim Pull.

BIG BLUE ENTERS SUNSET LEAGUE

The Sunset League provided some new, tough competition for the 1974-75 Varsity Football team as they closed the season 3-4-2. Wins in the close games against Edison and Louisa might have brought a first place finish. For the first time this year an Athletic Scholar Award was made. Bob Blackburn, with a GPA of 3.72, was selected. The Most Valuable Player Award went to Dave Krietzler. Mike Johnson, Warren Taylor, Jack Upton and Ken Yonogaki also came away with honors.

Student Administration lends a helping hand.

Student Administration is a group of talented students working together to make Fountain Valley High School activities run smoothly. After interviews with Student Council officers for Administration were filled, each officer with its own special purpose. Keywanettes build community relations

The Keywanettes, a girls' service organization, took charge of many money making activities. Mum and Valentine Sucker sales helped raise funds for work with the Key Club on March of Dimes projects, banquets, and making baskets for the needy at Christmas time. They took March of Dimes kids to Disneyland, Lion Country Safari and miniature golfing. The girls were also very involved in working with Fairview State Hospital.

Key Club humanizes the campus

Coming back after a week-end, students found eight large squares cut out of the bowl area. It was not the work of practical jokers, but only the beginning of Key Club's single service project. Later trees and combination bench — retaining walls were added. Earlier in the year the Club had sponsored a can food drive for Project Concern, a relief group operating in Tijuana. In March, almost the entire club turned out to participate in the March of Dimes Walk-a-thon. To end the year, Key Club members will be mixing business with pleasure at the annual convention, held this year in Sacramento.

Homecoming Commission reaches into the past as Environmental Commission plans for the future.

Environmental Commission is a group of students concerned with the problems of ecology. During Homecoming Week they planned "Pick Up Six," an activity that got other students involved in cleaning up the school grounds. From Long Ago was the theme of this year's Homecoming, written, produced and directed by the 1974-75 Homecoming Commission. Hours of planning, frustration, and hard work made Homecoming one of Fountain Valley's most successful Spirit Week and the colorful Halftime show earned not only a new respect for the Homecoming tradition. A successful dance and the Queen Mary provided the perfect finale for the annual event.

Pep promotes spirit while Honors makes their choice.

A new club on campus, Pep Club added excitement and color to football games and pep assemblies. These active girls promoted spirit and pride throughout the school year. The students involved in Honors Commission were very busy through the entire year. Faced with the problem of choosing the boys and girls of the month as well as the boy and girl of the year, the commission worked hard and spent many hours of decision making.

A productive year for Senior and Freshman Commissions

The class of 75 once again demonstrated their spirit and devotion throughout the year. Success was theirs at the Sadie Hawkins Dance and other money-making projects. Grad Night, The Senior prank and the Senior gift to the school were planned during informative meetings. Freshman Commission had a busy and productive year. There was a car wash, a bake sale for the 8th grade, door-to-door sales, and Valentine Candy Grams. Breaking the world record for roller skating stands out as the big achievement of the year.

Junior and Sophomore Commissions plan great activities.

The class of '76 organized many fund raising activities to raise money for the Junior/Senior Prom at Lion Country Safari. Flower sales, Christmas carnations and Valentine orchids along with a 50/60's week were among the activities sponsored by the Junior Class. The Sophomore Commission is involved in getting sophomores to take part in various school activities. The Commission sponsors such events as Winter Wonderland, Sophomore night at the movies, Sophomore picnic, and the designing of their class ring. At meetings, students plan activities and discuss ways of getting sophomores involved in the school. This is a very hard working group.

The Band marches in splendor.

With dazzling new uniforms, the Marching Band advanced triumphantly once again, establishing FV among the top percent of California Bands. With brilliant halftime shows and numerous awards including a music award, two first place awards, and a second in their past, Mr. Barnes and Drum Majors Emil deCou and Perry Morris took the Band to Tucson, Arizona to represent California in the "Festival de los Vasqueros." FVHS Marching Band proved to perform majestically and "Always with pride."

Out of 100 competitors at the Miss Drill Team USA competition, Kim Carozzo finished in the top 15 finalists with the jazz team placing 2nd. From Beethoven to Basie . . .

Made up of a specially selected group of student musicians, Stage Band was a top performing group. Playing rock and jazz at all home basketball games and concerts, they entertained the students. They also attended many music festivals and put on a fine show. As a result of many hours of practice and the determination of Mrs. Clower, Orchestra has displayed a fine show of talent. Among their performances have been a winter and spring concert, a trip to San Diego and they provided the music for the spring play, "Mame."

A new club on campus this year was the Music Club. Formed in the hopes of advancing the students interest in music, they planned several field trips including a trip to see PDQ Bach at Long Beach City College.

Troubadors and Girl's Glee sing out strong

Troubadors consisted of eight members who were specially selected from among all the music groups. Their theme for the first semester was western. They performed different selections from the musical "Oklahoma." During the second semester they went oriental and sang selections from "Kismet." They dressed in special costumes and choreographed their own movements to the songs to accent their theme.

Girl's Glee projected great enthusiasm as they performed various types of music proper to the time. They also took part in the Christmas concert and were pleased when they heard a tape of their concert played on the radio Christmas day. Behind the scenes, the student teacher, Mrs. Dolan, assisted Mr. Moore in directing and provided the girls with added confidence.

Pride in the voices of Baron and Concert Choir

The Barons' pride was emphasized in the voices of Baron Choir at the annual Homecoming game this year. Cooperating with the rest of the music department, Baron Choir also performed at the Christmas concert. The choir was originally formed as a preparation class for the spring musical "Mame." Concert Choir consisted of 24 members who worked hard this past year with advanced material in preparation for concerts. All their time wasn't spent studying music however, but they also spent time earning money for their trip to Europe in 1975. The other choir groups assisted by selling candy and helping out at bake sales. With Mrs. Freitag's (accompanist) and Mr. Moore's direction, good work and Bon Voyage.

Girls' League plans a variety of activities.

Planning everything from a picnic to a semi-formal dance, Girl's League once again proved themselves as an important organization at FVHS. The 12 Board members planned many successful activities such as "Big Sister Little Sister" picnic, Nighty-Night — a huge slumber party held in the gym, and a semi-formal Valentine's dance held at the Costa Mesa Country Club. Selling colorful Baron balloons during Spirit Week was just one of the many fund-raising activities planned by Girls' League.

At the same time FVHS students Louis Kelsh and Sean Hamill are spending a year abroad as part of the AFS program. Louis journeyed to Belgium, while Sean ventured to Australia.

CSF and FBLA use their heads . . .

With new advisor Ms. Dolly Deno, the four CSF officers once again tackled the problem of "how to gather 80 people in one place at the same time." "Once at a meeting, members had the opportunity to participate in a variety of activities. February found CSF'ers preparing for the annual Scholarbowl. In 1974, the Fountain Valley Team had advanced to 2nd round competition. "CSF Night at Disneyland" highlighted the year, with members from all over California checking in for an evening of fun. Interested in all facets of business, the Future Business Leaders of America were an active group. They attended the Southern Section Skills Conference and competed for awards. Late in the year they attended the State Conference in Fresno, California. For a change of pace, the club sold flowers in the Huntington Beach Mall on Mother's Day.

It was a very good year . . .

Fountain Valley High School Speech Club, led by coach Jim Caforio, have established themselves as one of the top speech groups in California. They placed 2nd at the La Mirada Invitational, 5th at Loyola University's high school tournament, 3rd at the California Invitational, 5th at the U.S.C. Invitational, and 3rd at the Redlands University Tournament of Champions. This team was led by Roxe Ann Brasier and Brian Watts. The team of Mike Howald and Phil Oxhorn placed 5th at the Loyola University tourney, 4th at the California Invitational and 2nd place in the consolation bracket at the Tustin Invitational. The debate team as a whole has been successful this year, winning sweepstakes last week as the best debate school at an all Orange County tournament. In individual competition, the squad has also been successful. The team swept top honors at the Orange County Winter Varsity tournament by being the top school in individual events. The speech team has had a very successful year, but with new and up coming members, FVHS speech squad expects to improve even more in the future.

German and French Club have profitable year.

With the thought of going to Germany next year, the German Club got to work raising needed dollars to get to their destination, with such activities as swing-a-thons and car washes. The club also had a few fun events like camping at Camp Angeles and ice and roller skating parties. French Club had many money making events including a bake sale and "Toujours Avec Fierté" button sales. The club viewed French films at a movie house in Corona Del Mar, and plans were made to cook French meals with the Home Economics department.

Latin Club continued it's efforts to promote togetherness among the students of that classic language. A small group under the direction of Mr. James Bierne planned a trip to Magic Mountain. The group works on a unique rotation membership. Any Latin student and their friends are welcome to participate in activities. Spanish Club made many friends among the kids at La Colonia Juarez with their gifts of stuffed Christmas stockings. Members also raffled piñatas during Holiday Week and ate a Christmas dinner at the Hungre Hambre. They were among the language classes attending the International Folk Dance Festival at the Dorothy Chandler Pavillion.

Baronettes and GAA Board keep up with sports

Among girl basketball fans, this spirited group of girls known as the Baronettes worked hard taking scores and statistics. Keeping records from Frosh to Varsity, the Baronettes were important to the Baron basketball team. GAA Board started the year with a "Get acquainted picnic," then a balloon sale at the Edison football game, caroling and a summer party, followed by a hunt for rustlers to see what school made for an enjoyable holiday season. The first GAA Convention was held this year. They also used the exciting Donkey Basketball game, put on the Daddy-Daughter picnic and sold candy for Easter

Surf shoots the curl

In spite of poor surfing conditions this year, our Surf Team showed their talent by coming out undefeated against Marina, Edison, El Monte, and Westminster. Rodney Livingston, Tom Ellis, Mark Peters, Roger Livingston, Don Johnston, and Bill Navarro, competed as the top six riders. The contests were usually held at 16th St. or the pier on overcast Saturday mornings. Along with the team there was also a club which helped give support by taking part in activities such as selling tickets to "Sea Daze" and "The Last Ride." The club also planned a few all-day trips including surfing down South, and skiing up at one of the local areas. At club meetings video tapes were shown of the last competition meet they had. In doing this, not only could the guys see how they actually looked, but it also helped show them their faults. This year's advisors, Dave Fitzpatrick and Dave Ester have noticed growing enthusiasm in the club and expect to see next year even better.

Ski Club hits the slopes while Equestrian just "Horses around"

This year the months of November and December hardly brought enough snow to go "innertubin" in. By December 25th, however, Utah reported a 53 inch blast, so the buses were loaded up, and the Fountain Valley Ski Club took off for a five day skiing spree at Snowbird, Alta, and Park City. During the Washington Birthday Holiday, the club spent three days and two nights at Mammoth Mountain. Plans were then made for the annual Spring Vacation trip to scenic Lake Tahoe, Squaw, and Heavenly Valley, with high hopes that snow conditions would be adequate for a week of fantastic spring skiing. All together, F.V.'s ski club had a great season, next year the Caribboos!!!

The Equestrian Club, under the direction of Ms. Farr is composed of members which are united by a similar love for horses. Activities included running a booth at a swap meet and sponsoring several trail rides. Any students interested in the subject of horses was welcome to join the club.

Magic and Drama Club get into the act.

The Magic Club showed much skill and ambition through their many activities this year. By demonstrating magic sets for Bulllocks, putting on shows for schools and churches and appearing on the Channel 4 News, the club gained much recognition throughout the county. Individual members have manufactured saleable magic tricks and/or gotten part-time private shows.

Exuberant members of Drama Club planned an active year. They performed skits during English classes as well as providing lunchtime entertainment with "Ham on Rye." The club also worked hard during the winter and a play is set as the spring musical.

Presses roll for LeMot deadline

With eight editions to publish, the 1975 LeMot staff was always on the move to get a newsworthy "scoop." Covering student interest and news isn't as easy as it may seem. LeMot staffers kept hours to meet deadlines. A new "mast head" and layout dimensions added to the LeMot's unique new look. John Caldwell — Editor in Chief and "Mr. E" — advisor kept everything in order, and saw to the organization of each edition.

Raconteur Staff tries to get "ahead"

With the press in the states, the Raconteur Staff was hard at work compiling memories, friends and events for the 1975 Raconteur. Twenty three "dedicated" students spent many hours in room 129 hoping that everything went as planned and came out right, the FIRST time. Tim Mennealy, Advisor and Carol Erickson, Editor, made sure that everything got in on time. With support from Blalack Studios and Taylor Publishing Company, their goal was that much easier to achieve.

Problems Solved by Administrators

Although Dr. Paul Berger is in his ninth year as Principal, 1975 saw several changes in the Administration at FVHS. New to the school was Thomas Herda, now Coordinator of Dean Attendance. Kenneth Friess, Assistant Principal Student Services Work Experience Coordinator. Carl Jednoralski were familiar to students as former teachers. Mr. David Buffington assumed the position of Assistant Principal Instructional Services. Continuing as Assistant Principal Student Affairs, Assistant Principal Personnel Services, Student Teacher Coordinator, Assistant Principal Student School and Community Services, and School Nurse were Mrs. Juanita Halloran, Mr. Leon Stuabs, Dr. Ronald McVigh, Mr. George Belt and Mrs. Leatrice Nash.

Counselors aid confused students

Finding a way through a school as large as FVHS is difficult. But with the help of this year's dedicated a Counseling Staff; Art Frankel, Eleanor Wechsler, Donald Jackson, Lois Abrams, Shirley Berg, Barbara Murray, Gary Grebbien, Pat Sandeman, Doug Hoagland, Pat Reider, and Darlys Weiss, is was made easier. By initiating such programs as peer counseling, night counseling, and a drop-in-center, the counselors helped the students with special programs.

Members of Staff never find a dull moment

Keeping a school of over 4,000 students running would be an impossible task without the help of FVHS Staff members. While Title III Manager Elaine Rowen, Campus Policeman Bill Fisher, Nurses - Ann Sara Louzao, and Psychologist Evelyn Smith worked directly with students, countless others performed essential behind the scene services. Taking care of everything from footballs to bows and arrows were P.E. Attendants Doris Borrowman and John Hood. Rick Davis inhabited "the little room out back of the library" as Reviving and Textbook Clerk. The Cafeteria personnel - Doris Porter, Joel Slaughter, Imogene Kalfert, Getty Eidem, Vivian Hall, Ann Harvey, Jean Cochran, Regina Gibson and Alta Greshaw - kept everyone well fed, but after lunch, it was time for the Custodial Staff - Richard Grace, Glenn Crumbly, Ted Beaver, Arthur Ellman, Glen Hicks, Gregory Wallace, Leonard Frost, Henry Schlatter, Kenneth Hedge, George Booner, John Klungreseter and William Jones - to clean up. Up in the front office, the Administrators' secretaries - Jane Odland, Mary Barnard, Eleanor Colona, Jeannette Wilderman, Lorriane Ermel and Margaret Ynigues - kept their bosses in the right place at the right time. A mountain of paper work was kept in order by the Clerk Typists - Peggy Potts, Eudoxia Narog, Betty Chaldu, Eileen Burgd, Marian Melendez, Ann Marie Massoni, Elaine Redding, Betty Butler, and Mira Mathia. Finally it was Business Service Assistant Joe Tunink's turn to help Dr. Berger to pay for it all.

A row of nine black and white portrait photographs of young women, likely from the 1940s or 1950s, arranged horizontally. Each photo shows a woman from the chest up, with various hairstyles and clothing typical of that era. The photos are slightly faded and have a vintage quality.

Dad - it seems like never see you all those times from camp - but I do see handwriting

 I would it is with say to someone who but I want to see you had a more great time that I would like to don't forget to keep on coming over anytime
 see you later see
 Love
 Jennifer

Editor's note: The Icons and Images of 1975 have been compiled and are in your hands to enjoy and remember. My appreciation goes to Mr.
 Dave Hager for putting up with all our short comings; Steve Eddy who kept us going through the night; Eric Anderson for his extra efforts in photography; Black Studios and "the Bag Lady" for their special services; Mary Everly of Taylor Publishing Company for keeping the book going; the FVHS maintenance staff who put up with our late hours; Tim Mennealy for his support, dedication and courage; and the countless others whose cooperation and time made this "Storyteller" possible.

happy to (unclear)

un, your very sweet person stay that way always I am glad I got to know you at your Aunt that sounds funny! Oh well have a nice summer and a equally nice senior see you next year or in the summer at the beach
Love Nancy Jump

Dar.

I can't believe how long I have known you it doesn't seem like 3 years. I really hope you have a nice summer. You deserve one. You know! You have really changed for the better. You are so much more freeer
in your own mind
Call me in the summer

Respect
Katinka

Take care.
Lots of love from your Aunt Nancy Jump

Don't I'm really glad that we conceded our differences cause I'm really glad I have you as a friend. I will go far in life (I know you will) you're pretty nice, have a good personality and I love ya. I'll see you this summer or instead of telling you how I feel-I'll show you. Good luck with Ken cause together you two will really make it.

Love
ya

Always,

Teresa

Malattia
